Guide for the Tender for the Allocation of Beds to University Students in CX's Residences

Introduction
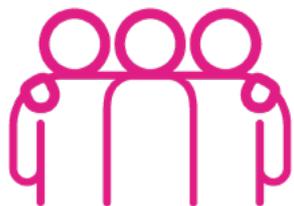

CX operates in the university student housing industry with the aim of facilitating students' academic career through the management of university residences. In pursuit of this objective, the Fondazione Experience, which is a partner of Campus X, offers residences providing the best housing, study and community conditions for Italian and international students.

This Guide to the Tender refers to the residences listed in the table below, which are managed by Campus X and financed by the European Union - "NextGenerationEU" referred to in the National Recovery and Resilience Plan (NRRP) - Mission 4 - Component 1 - Reform 1.7 'Student Housing and Reform of Student Housing Legislation'.

1.   Spaces and services

Various types of accommodation are available in the residences, including single and double rooms. In addition, there are communal spaces designed to encourage study and community life.

2.   Allocation procedure

There are two different allocation procedures for Students who are already housed at a specific Residence (hereafter, 'Renewal Student') and Students applying for a specific Residence for the first time (hereafter, 'New Student').
A Renewal Student can only apply for the same Residence in which they are already housed. In the event that a student is already housed in a CX Residence but they wish to apply for a different CX Residence, they shall submit a new Application for the Allocation of a Bed for the facility of interest and will be considered as a New Student.
